The Cardiff Naturalists' Society takes your privacy seriously and will only use your personal information to administer your membership. We hold your name, address, membership renewal status and email address to use in sending newsletters and reminders of Society events that we are organising, or are involved with; or to remind you to renew your membership. This is only accessible by those Council Members who perform the duties of Membership Secretary, Treasurer and Publicity Officer. We do not automatically process your information or share your information with any other groups or organisations. You have the right, subject to proof of identity, to review and request removal or rectification of any information that we hold and can do this via the Membership Secretary.
